Friday 18th January 2019

Dear Parent/Guardian,

'Book in a jar' competition

In conjunction with the forthcoming World Book Day on Friday 8th March, we are running a 'Book in a jar' competition to celebrate this special day.

Children are invited to think about how a favourite book could be represented in a simple plastic jar. Unfortunately, we can only accept plastic tubs/jars as glass is not allowed in school. If you would like to purchase a plastic jar, they will be available in the school office at a cost of £1.

Any clear plastic jar/tub can be used. You can put carefully chosen items to represent your book into your jar/tub, selected quotes from your book, perhaps even clues about its characters or setting. The list is endless...

Please make sure that any 'Book in a jar' competition entries are clearly labelled with the book that is being represented, your child's full name and year group so that we can allocate the prize to them.

All entries must be in school on the morning of Wednesday 6th March for judging.

Winners will be announced during assembly on Friday 8th March where the entries will be available for viewing by the whole school as part of our World Book Day celebrations.

Many thanks for your continued support, and good luck!
