Anti-Bullying Week

Dear Parents/ Carers,

This year, we are holding Odd Socks Day. It's a chance for primary schools to celebrate Anti-Bullying Week in a positive way by asking pupils to wear odd socks to school. There is no pressure to wear the latest fashion or buy expensive costumes. All you have to do to take part is wear odd socks.

Odd Socks day will take place on the first day of Anti Bullying Week, Monday 11th November to help raise awareness for Anti-Bullying Week. The rest of your child's school uniform should be worn as normal.

As a school, we will be participating in a range of activities throughout the week in line with celebrating difference to promote the idea of respect. This will include work on online safety and responsible use of social media and online gaming.

On Tuesday 19th November 2019, we have a visitor coming into school. He will be leading an assembly and workshops for each class, to show the children how to overcome difficulties when faced with particular challenges/ disabilities. This allows the children to think outside of the box with the emphasis being when something is 'difficult', 'hard' or 'challenging', it is still 'possible'!

We hope that the children will enjoy the week and find it valuable.

Yours sincerely,

Miss R Evans
